She ransacked every novel
And the dictionary, too,
But nothing ever printed
For her baby's name would do;
She hunted appellations
From the present and the past,
And this is what she named him,
When they christened him at last:
Juliah Harold Egbert
Ulysses Victory Paul
Algernon Marcus Cecil
Sylvester George McFall.
But after all the trouble
She'd taken for his sake,
His father called him Fatty,
And his schoolmates called him
Jake.

Democrats elected six of the nine aldermen in Chicago, Tuesday.

The rain yesterday "spoiled" what gave promise of being a pretty decent spell of weather.

The body of Henry James, the novelist, who died Tuesday in London,
will be cremated.

Barren county is preparing to join the good roads' procession with a bond issue.

Two persons are known to have been killed and about twenty injured
when five cases of dynamite exploded
at Maplewood, a suburb of St. Louis.

Henry James, distinguished novelist, critic and playwright, died Monday at his home in London. He was born an American, but died a British subject.

A Chicago woman who sued her husband, Dr. Curtis, for divorce named eight other women as co-respondents. The doctor was evidently like his namesake, a high flyer.

We notice that the Nashville Ten-nessean's spelling of turpentine hasn't improved any since this time last year, when the Kentuckian explained that "salut" was not greens.

Bob Thomas wants the government to appropriate $13,000 to fight tobacco worms in Kentucky. As Bob is already running for Congress again, why not let the early birds catch the worms?

Col. E. B. Bassett, of this city, was chairman of the Republican district convention at Henderson, Tuesday.
The convention endorsed Phil Brown for delegate from the State at large and his election at Louisville seems assured.

The federal census shows that Kentucky has only gained 11,000 in one year, although the country at large is gaining 4,400 in population every day.
Kentucky is badly in need of a business legislature that will not waste its time passing fool laws to drive people out of the state.

Unbusiness over the strained relations between Germany and the United States cut down the price of wheat Monday 5 cents a bushel. Selling out of holdings reached a big aggregate. May wheat, which closed Saturday at $1.13, touched $1.08, 1/2
just before the finish. Last sales were at $1.09, a net decline of 4 1/2 cents. During the recent "high water" prices, most of the Christian county farmers who were holding their wheat let it go at from $1.25 to $1.40. Those who didn't are sorry.

In deciding that a two-thirds majority was not necessary to vote road
bonds, the Court of Appeals quoted this 1909 amendment to section 157 of the constitution: "Provided said additional indebtedness is submitted to the voters of the county for their ratification or rejection at a special election held for such purpose, in such manner as may be provided by the law." The manner provided by the legislative authority to carry into effect the provisions of sections 157-a,
did not make more than a majority vote necessary to authorize road bonds under the amendment. Other bonds are on the old basis.

INSURANCE BILL IS PASSED

Representative Harvey Is Still
Asking For An Investigation.

Frankfort, Ky., March 1.—At the urgent request of Republican members, both branches of the general assembly have adjourned until Thursday morning. The adjournment is to permit members of the minority to attend the state convention of their party at Louisville tomorrow. Many Democrats also will visit the Republican gathering.

The Huffaker substitute for the Glenn insurance bill passed the senate
31 to 1, Montgomery casting the dissenting vote. In explaining his vote, Senator Frost said he cannot indorse
all that is in the bill, but thinks that some insurance legislation is necessary on account of the drastic legislation passed by the last general assembly along that line. Since that time the insurance companies, he said, have been working under a flag of truce, and if some kind of legislation is not passed, that truce will be withdrawn and the insurance companies probably will withdraw from the state.

Although voting for the measure,
Senator Stricklett said it is too favorable for insurance companies. In fact, he said, it is just as favorable to the insurance companies as the bill passed two years ago was favorable to the insurer. The Huffaker bill, Senator Stricklett said, appeared to him to be gotten up for the benefit of the insurance companies.

The bill to provide for interest-bearing state warrants with specified date of maturity, after being amended, passed unanimously. The amendment added was offered by Senator Combs, who explained that it was drawn by the general council of the federal reserve board to permit the federal reserve banks to compete for state warrants. Under the bill, as drawn, the federal banks could not be competitors, he said.

Representative W. B. Harvey, of Webster county, again demanded that he be given a "square deal" and an immediate investigation of the charges against his moral character be made.
A fellow member of the house, J. D.
Pumphreys, of Fleming county, said that Harvey had made an attack on a chambermaid at the Capital hotel.
It is probable the committee of six divided equally between friends of Harvey and Pumphreys will proceed with the investigation without naming a seventh man, as neither seems able to agree on a referee.

MR. BRYANT'S TALK

Met Polled Durham Club Monday and Discussed The Work.

Prof. T. R. Bryant, the expert cattle man, spent Monday in the city and talked on cattle breeding at the H. B.
M. A. to a crowd of 25 or 30 members of the Polled Durham Club. He told them that much depended on starting with the very best blood. He said he thought a wise selection of a breed had been made, the Polled
Durham being a dual purpose breed.
Being of the same family, new shorthorn crosses could be made at any time. He made a fine talk and left here for Henderson, where he was to make a speech at the Farmers' Chautanqua. He is an all-around broad gauge man and one of the principal extension workers in the live stock department.

The woman's profile on the silver dollar is that of Miss Annie Williams, of Philadelphia, a noted beauty of twenty years ago.

Circuit Court has been at work this week on old cases, with cases many against the government in the court. A few have been tried.

Care Turner, grand larceny, was given 12 months in jail.

Tom Taylor, charged with willfully ploughing a graveyard, by penning live stock in it, was fined $20. Judge Hanbury, being an interested party, voted the fine in his own favor, and Judge P. P. Smith dissented.

The case of Walter Watkins, grand larceny, resulted in a verdict of 3 to 5 years.

WANTS A SHOW DOWN.

On the eve of the opening of Germany's submarine campaign against armed merchantmen, President Wilson has thrown down the gauntlet to congress over the resolutions that have been introduced, having as their purpose the warning of Americans from traveling on armed merchantmen. In a letter to Representative Pou, acting chairman of the house rules committee, the President has asked that the matter be brought to a vote in the house. It is his intention to ask for similar action in the senate.
The President's step is taken in order that "all doubts and conjectures may be swept away and our foreign relations once more cleared of damaging misunderstandings."

Cole Younger Dying.

Cole Younger, one of the last of the famous bandits of Civil war days, is dying near Independence, Mo., on the farm where he was born 71 years ago. For several weeks now he has been hovering between life and death
and the end would not be unexpected at any time. Younger has been out of prison thirteen years, after serving a quarter of a century behind the bars of the Minnesota penitentiary for the Northfield bank robbery in 1876. His brother, Bob, died in the prison.

Germans Report Capture of 228 Officers, 16,575 Men and Large Number of Guns.

JOFFRE HOLDING HIS OWN

Russia Tells of Frightful
Slaughter of Turks in Forts
of Erzerum.

London, March 1.—With the lessening of the activity of the contending forces to the north of Verdun, the French in the Woivre region, east of Verdun, are using their artillery to break up German preparations for further advances toward the fortress.
At various points the fire of the French guns has prevented the Germans from launching offensives.

In the Vosges mountains there also has been great artillery activity by the French near Senones and Ban-de-Sapt; while near Seppois the Germans have been driven out of trenches they had previously taken. In the Champagne, the German fortified works in the region of hill 193 have been battered by the French guns and the crater of a mine exploded by the Germans was occupied by the French.

The Germans have added several additional points to their terrain in the Verdun, having been enabled to construct trenches on the slopes north of the Cote du Poivre and to capture an armored work northwest of Douamont, and have taken the towns of Mandeville and Champlon, thirteen miles southeast of Verdun.

In this drive to the west of Verdun,
the advance of the Germans has extended over a front virtually twelve miles—from Dieppe to Champlon.

It is reported that thus far they have taken prisoner 228 officers, 16, 575 men and a large number of guns,
and captured much war material.

There has been considerable anti-aircraft activity and fights in the air between balloons of German and British forces, along the British front in France and Belgium.

To the Dvinsk region of Russia, the Russians have driven the Germans back and advanced their line, and put down under heavy fire an attempt at a counter attack.

In a lengthy statement, in reply to an official communication issued from Constantinople, the Russian general staff describes the powerful defenses which guard the Dardanelles, and declares that the force of the blow dealt by the Russians can be estimated by the fact that some of the Turkish army corps or three divisions each now number only a few thousand, all the remainder having either perished or been taken prisoner.

Details are lacking concerning the disaster to the French auxiliary cruiser Provence, which has been lost in the Mediterranean. While the French ministry of marine estimates the number of survivors at 870, no estimate is made of the casualties.

Harlan county was dead to the world and buried out of sight until the L. & N. railroad was extended into it three years ago. Now it is progressing with a vengeance. They have voted a bond issue of $250,000 and will spend nearly half a million on roads.—Big Sandy News.

March 4 to 11 as "Baby Week" is to be observed generally throughout the nation, and public meetings are to be held at which child welfare is to be discussed and lectures and demonstrations will be held in many communities. The movement is being promoted by the General Federation of Women's clubs.

Miss Bean, of New Decatur, Ala., eloped from her mother's own room, where she had been ordered to sleep, and married her lover, Ed Cook. She set her shoes on the porch and arose in the night and tipped oat, escaping in an automobile bareheaded. Cooks and Beans make a combination, after Boston's own taste, if not popular in Tennessee.

The Nashville Tennessean has moved into its handsome and commodious new quarters and is receiving congratulations from all over the country. The new location is on Fourth avenue and is a most desirable one in every way. The Tennessean bears every evidence of prosperity, and while it is a good paper with a fine news service, it has two distinctive features that commend themselves to the public—the superiority of its Orr cartoons and the excellence of its editorial page.

WHEN COFFEE WAS NOVELTY

Greek First Brewed the Now So Popular Beverage, at Oxford in 1646.

Joannes Gennadius, the Greek envoy to Great Britain, ascribes to a Greek named Nathaniel Canopios the introduction of coffee in that country in 1646, when Canopios was a student at Oxford, where he brewed the drink for his own use, according to an exchange. The establishing of the first coffee house in London was, it is said, by a Greek named Pasqua, in 1650.

Another writer gives the date of 1654 as that on which coffee was first sold in England. This was at Oxford and by a Jew named Jacobs. Oldys, the celebrated antiquary, states that the use of coffee in England was first known in 1657; that Mr. Edwards, a merchant, brought from Smyrna to London "one Pasqua Rosee, a Ragusan youth, who prepared this drink for him every morning."

Later the merchant allowed his said servant with another of his son-in-law to sell it publicly, and the sign of the first coffee was "Pasqua Rosee's own head." It was given out that this new drink was "excellent to prevent and cure the dropsy, gout and scurvy; and it is known by experience to be better than any other drying drink for people in years or children that have any running humors upon them, as king's evil, etc.

"It is a most excellent remedy against the spleen, hypochondriac minds and the like; it will prevent drowsiness and make one fit for business if one have occasion to watch, and therefore you are not to drink it after supper, unless you intend to be watchful, for it will hinder sleep for three or four hours." And today all these excellent praises are turned against the beverage of the browned berry.

Crandall, Tex.—"After my last spell of sickness," writes Mrs. Belle Teal, of this city, "I remained very ill, and stayed in bed for eight weeks. I couldn't get up, all this time, and though my doctor came to see me every day, he didn't do me any good. I had taken but one bottle of Cardui, when I was up, going everywhere, and soon I was doing all my housework." Cardui helps when other medicines have failed, because it contains ingredients not found in any other medicine. REQUIREMENTS OF HUSBANDS

"Love and a Cottage" Favored by One University Student.

Minneapolis, Feb. 28.—The Minnesota Daily, the student newspaper of the University of Minnesota, which had asked the women students of the institution the question, "How much salary must a man receive before you would consent to marry?" gives replies ranging from $500 to $10,000 a year. Most of the girls were conservative in their demands, however, and the general average based on early replies, is about $1,600.

One girl wrote: "What is money to me! Give me a true, loving husband and a cottage."

A large majority of the girls demanded that their future husbands be good dancers, some said they must know the "latest steps," and one went so far as to say she would marry only a man who was a "dreamy dancer."

Smoking would be permitted, even demanded, by a large number of the girls, but drinking would be prohibited, and those who advocated card playing say bridge should be substituted for poker, although one girl concedes her future husband one night a week for the latter game.

Dangers of Draft.

Drafts feel best when we are hot and perspiring, just when they are most dangerous and the result is Neuralgia, Stiff Neck, Sore Muscles or sometimes an attack of Rheumatism. In such cases apply Sloan's Liniment. It stimulates circulation to the sore and painful part. The blood flows freely and in a short time the stiffness and pain leaves. Those suffering from Neuralgia or Neuralgic Headache will find one or two applications of Sloan's Liniment will give grateful relief. The agonizing pain gives way to a tingling sensation of comfort and warmth and quiet rest and sleep is possible! Good for Neuritis too. Price 25c. at your Druggist.—Advertisement.

Deal Blocked.

Ashland, Ky., Feb. 28.—G. E. Cochran, of the Federal court, has held that the city of Ashland can not buy the Ashland Water Works for which it contracted in 1911, when a bond issue for $175,000 for that purpose carried. Citizens enjoined the issuing of the bonds. Judge Cochran, in his decision, holds that a corporation can not issue bonds for more than five per cent. of its assessed valuation.

YANKED YOUTH TO SAFETY

Former Idaho Cowboy Skillfully User Driving Rein to Save Imperiled Skater.

After hanging on the edge of a sheet of ice for 15 minutes with feet and body dangling in icy water at the dam of the Thurmont Power company Charles, twelve-year-old son of Mrs. B. M. Jones of Thurmont, was saved from drowning by Frank Harnes of Foxville, formerly an Idaho cowboy. The youngster was pulled from the ice by a lasso fashioned from a driving rein and thrown by Harnes.

With a view of determining whether the ice would bear his weight, the boy ventured on it and plunged through a weak section. In his fall he clutched solid ice, and as Harnes, accompanied by his brother, drove by in a buggy he was discovered. Harnes stopped, tore a rein from the harness of the horse and hurriedly fashioned a lasso, then ventured on the ice until he came within range. Then he tossed the lasso, and the noose settled over the neck of the boy, who was pulled to safety.—San Francisco Dispatch Philadelphia Record.

A Visiting Librarian.

Mary Dewitt Titcomb has extended the field of the circulating library in Washington county, Maryland, until it reached the most inaccessible on the rural delivery list. With the consent of the trustees, she built a "library wagon," which was made much like a laundry wagon. It had side doors opening outward and each side was fitted with shelves of books. Drawn by two mules, the library started out into the country. Now the wagon has been taken off and in its place is a library motor car which carries a visiting librarian who advises the families and helps select the books they want. The teachers of the district schools also use the library motor car to choose pictures and books for their pupils. The traveling library makes two trips a week, or 16 routes, covering the entire county, which has 50,000 inhabitants. Miss Titcomb says that the people in the country do not read as much fiction as her patrons in the city do.

SHOT MEANT LIFE OR DEATH

Salvation of Arctic Exploring Party Depended on Accurate Aim of One Man.

After they had existed on the barren ice-bound Wrangel island for six months, the dozen survivors of the ill-fated Karluk of Vilhjalmur Stefansson's arctic expedition, were rescued. A small amount of seal oil and a few fox carcasses were all that remained of their food supply, writes Mr. Burt M. McConnell in Harper's Magazine. Munro had only twelve cartridges left with which to sustain himself and his companions.

"On one occasion," said Munro, "after our food supply had become exhausted and we were wondering where the next meal was coming from, I saw a seal out on the ice. I crept to within a hundred yards of him before I had to stop to steady my nerves. My heart beat so loudly that I thought the seal must surely hear it.

"While I was resting the thought came to me, 'If you miss him, you will starve'—for seals were very scarce, and we had seen no other game in seven days.

"I crept to an advantageous position, set the hair trigger of my rifle, and took deliberate aim. I think I held the gun sights on the head of that seal for at least two minutes, but my hand was too unsteady to make my aim certain. I lay down on the ice to regain my composure, but the thought that if I waited too long the seal might disappear would not allow me to rest.

"I aimed again, but my nervousness again frustrated my aim. I kept saying to myself through clenched teeth, 'I'll get you!' and calling the seal all sorts of names. I was a cave man for a few moments. When I had become calmer, I fired. The seal gave one shudder and lay still.

"I saw and killed only just one seal after that; so the rescue party came in the nick of time."

APPLE TREE HAS MONUMENT

Canadian Farmers Recognize Worthy Part Played by Progenitor of Fruit in the Dominion.

Perhaps one of the most curious monuments in existence has recently been built in Ontario by Canadians. The farmers have just erected a marble pillar to mark the site on which grew a famous apple tree.

More than a century ago a settler in Canada named McIntosh, when clearing a space in which to make a home in the wilderness, discovered among a number of wild apple trees one which bore fruit so well that he cultivated it and named it McIntosh Red.

The apple became famous; seeds and cuttings were distributed to all parts of Canada, so that now the McIntosh Red flourishes wherever apples grow in the great Dominion. In 1896, the original tree from which this enormous family sprang was injured by fire; but it continued to bear fruit until five years ago. Then, after 15 years, it died, and the grateful farmers have raised a marble pillar in honor of the tree which has done so much for the fruit-growing industry of their land.

The story of this apple tree illustrates the African proverb that though you can count the apples on one tree, you can never count the trees in one apple.—Popular Science Monthly.

Sloan's Liniment

Read this unsolicited grateful testimony—
Not long ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me many restless nights. So serious did it become that I was forced to consider giving up my work when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. Let me say—less than one bottle fixed me up.

Golden Wedding.

Disastrous Fire.

An important social event in Chattanooga was the celebration of the "golden wedding" of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Faxon at their home in that city on the evening of February 22. The union of this highly esteemed and very popular couple—they are still entirely too young to be called venerable—took place in Clarksville in 1866. Mr. Faxon has long been associated with banks and other financial institutions in Clarksville, Nashville and Chattanooga, and is one of the best-known men in the state. He has been also a quasi newspaper man, having had a penchant for writing, and through articles in the Louisville Courier-Journal and other publications one time came into public notice. The Banner is pleased to extend its congratulations with a most sincere expression of the wish that there may be many happy returns of the auspicious anniversary.—Nashville Banner.

Admiralville, Ky., March 1.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed the brick store building of Mrs. M. E. Robertson & Co., dry goods dealers, on the west side of the public square here at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The entire stock of goods was destroyed. The fire was discovered by Joe Willoughby, night watchman for Morris Bros. tobacco factory, and had gained much headway at the time. The Empire Publishing company on the south, was also destroyed by fire and falling walls. The loss for this company was complete, as no insurance was carried on the stock. On the building $800 was carried.

The stock of Mrs. M. E. Robertson & Co., was valued at about $15,000, and was insured for $10,000, while the building was valued at $10,000 and was insured for $3,000.

Mr. Whittaker's Report.

What is expected to be of inestimable value in determining the amount and character of road work to be done in Christian county in the event the $400,000 bond issue carries at the election to be held on March 18, will be the detailed report to be made by J. A. Whittaker, expert road engineer directly connected with the federal bureau of good roads, who is superintending road work in several counties of Tennessee and Kentucky for the government. From present indications the bond issue will carry by a handsome majority. The supporters of the proposition are campaigning every day now, sending speakers to every neighborhood in the county. The Republicans and Democrats are working in harmony.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian tube. A catarrh of this tube is inflamed by a runny nose, or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation is taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

RAISE IN PRINTING

PRICES TO BE MADE

Evansville Print Shop Proprietors Declare Increasing Expense of Paper Necessitates Action.

The price of paper having made a jump of 23 per cent during the past week, after a constant increase for some time past, an advance of all printed matter will result.

This was decided at a meeting of the local printing shop proprietors held in the E. B. A. hall. Almost all printing establishments in the city were represented. It was shown that they could not continue turning out matter at the present prices while being compelled to pay the price asked for paper by manufacturers.

A committee was appointed to draw up the increase to be demanded which will be announced within the next few days.—Evansville Courier.

Two Birds Had Occupied Nest.
A North Westmoreland (Eng.) farmer in the course of his rounds through his fields found a nest with 25 eggs in it. The large number was not the only marvel, for on examining the eggs he found that 15 of them belonged to a pheasant and the remaining 10 to a partridge. The pheasant, as the stronger bird, was the probable intruder.

More Than 5 Per Cent Off Will Condemn Whole Shipment.

Washington, March 1.—Eggs not 95 per cent good will be barred from interstate commerce hereafter, under the ruling by the department of agriculture. Shippers packing more than 5 per cent bad eggs will be regarded as violating the food and drug act by adulteration.

Investigation has shown the department's announcement says, that through the method of candling shippers may eliminate all but about 5 per cent of bad eggs. Decomposed eggs to be used for tanning or such purposes, under the department's ruling, must be removed from the shell before shipment to render them incapable of being sold for food.

Mrs. Beatrice Allison, who has been at the hospital several days, is about ready to return home.

Miss Harris, of Erin, Tenn., is under treatment.

Man-Power.

There is a distinct difference between power and endurance. The average woman seems to have quite as much endurance as the average man; but in actual physical power she is entirely outclassed. In a series of experiments to determine this point, it was found that the average energy a man can develop is one-fifth horsepower, that of a woman only half as much. The machine for making the tests is a bicycle mounted on a fixed frame, and geared to a brake wheel. The person under test works the pedals, and the point at which the friction of the brake causes the machine to stop indicates the horse-power he has reached.

"Wheel! I Don't Care! I Got Rid of My Corns With 'Gels-It'!"

folks humped up, with cork-screwed faces, gouging, picking, drilling out their corns, making packages of their toes with plasters, bandages, tape and contraptions,—and the "holler" in their corns goes on forever! Don't you do it. Use "Gels-It." It's marvelous, simple, never fails. Apply it in 2 seconds. Nothing to stick to the skin, hurt or irritate the toe, pain stops. Corn comes "clean off," quick. It's one of the gems of the world. Try it—you'll kick—from joy. For corns, calluses, warts, bunions, "Gels-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Hopkinsville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by L. L. Elgin and J. O. Cook.

Veteran of Both Armies.

Henderson, Ky., March 1.—Death's sudden summons claimed Major Marius Manning Kimmel at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at his home on Green street. Major Kimmel had been up town and had reached his front gate when he was suddenly stricken and died in a short time after he was carried into his home. He was 84 years old and is survived by his wife and seven children. Major Kimmel was born in Perry county, Mo., Oct. 25, 1832. He graduated with honors from West Point in the class of 1857 and saw active service fighting Indians in Texas and other western states. In 1861 he assisted in the defense of Washington city after the battle of Bull Run, but resigned from the federal service and joined the confederate army in that year. He served on the staffs of Gen. Sterling Price in Missouri, Gens. Van Dorn and Mc-Gruder in Tennessee.

Vermont is estimated to have 2,000,000 horsepower of undeveloped water power.

Carefully Treat Children's Colds

Neglect of children's colds often lays the foundation of serious lung trouble. On the other hand, it is harmful to continually dose delicate little stomachs with internal medicines or to keep the children always indoors. Plenty of fresh air in the bedroom and a good application of Vick's "Vapo-Rub" Salve over the throat and chest at the first sign of trouble, will keep the little chaps free from colds without injuring their digestions. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

AVIATORS FREEZE TO DEATH

German Airmen Lose Lives While in Performance of Their Duty in Russia.

Owing to the intense cold, German air scouts are becoming less active in Russia.

Thanks to the bitterness of the weather, one albatross machine was captured by the Russians absolutely intact. It was observed over the Russian lines, and was allowed to get well to the rear before a Russian flotilla of aeroplanes mounted and cut off its retreat, and concurrently the artillery became busy.

The albatross soared to altitudes where the cold must have reached minus 31, or 63 degrees of frost, Fahrenheit. Soon it was seen to be circling aimlessly, and finally it made a good descent, quite normally, into some marshes behind the Russian lines.

After a couple of hours' search the machine was discovered. The pilot and observer were both dead in their seats, and the machine was in perfect condition. The men undoubtedly perished through the intense cold, aggravated by rapid motion through the air.

It is probable that the last conscious act of the pilot was to plane down, that his and his companion's arms being frozen, they were unable to loosen the straps which bound them to their seats, and that heart failure from cold brought death.

HEARD AT THE GAYETY

"Are you a vegetarian?"
 "Partly. That is, I would rather the audience threw cabbages and beets than dead cats and eggs."

STARLINGS AND BULLETS.

One can readily believe the report that the starlings in the wooded country about Souchez are imitating the whistling of rifle bullets; for the starling is the most imitative of birds. I have heard him imitating a blackbird so closely that a casual listener might have been deceived; and the blackbird's song is not an easy thing to imitate. The talking starling seems to have gone out of fashion, for which lovers of birds should be duly thankful. He has his place in literature. No one can forget the caged starling in "The Sentimental Journey," whose pathetic cry, "I can't get out; I can't get out!" moved Sterne to one of the truest and tenderest of his episodes. Sterne's starling and the raven in "Barnaby Rudge" are the two birds in English literature that survive.—London Chronicle.

LOOKING AHEAD.

"If you want to know anything about the Fiji islanders, just ask Professor Diggs."

"But I haven't the slightest desire to know anything about the Fiji islanders."

"Well, you never can tell. Uncle Sam is reaching out after foreign trade, you know. Some day you may want to sell the Fijians a bill of goods."

NO LAUGHING MATTER.

"Dubwaite impresses me as being a man who takes life too seriously."

"Well, I must say I don't blame him much."

"Has he a private sorrow?"

"Three private sorrows. He's buying a house, a grand piano and an automobile on the installment plan."

NATURAL INCLINATION.

"My lawyer is devoted to dogs."
 "Now I would think a lawyer would be more inclined to the fee-line species."

BIG SALARY SPLITTING

Attorney Says Mrs. Eaton's Case Will Be a Minor Issue.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Asserting that the Eaton-Rowe graft controversy was a minor event compared to revelations which he would make, Seymour Stedman, attorney for Mrs. Waller Page Eaton, former head of the social welfare department, who had charged she had been compelled to give a salary splitting arrangement to a beneficiary of the department, today declared he was bringing forth a witness who would show that the salary splitting arrangement was a developed part of the department. The hearing, which was to be the first service commission, was adjourned until Friday.

School Boy's Death.

Rowan Morris, a sixteen-year-old High School boy, a son of A. J. Morris, died Sunday of appendicitis. The attack came with such suddenness that his condition at once became so serious that an operation was not possible. He was a bright and promising boy and very much liked by his schoolmates. The funeral services were held at the family residence on Fifteenth and Cherry streets Monday afternoon. Interment in Riverside Cemetery.

Threatening Note.

Mr. C. R. Garland received a threatening note through the mails a few days ago ordering him to get rid of some negroes employed on his place near Cusky. He paid no attention to it.

MISS PAIRLEE DAVIS

Appointed Canning Club Agent For Lawrence County.

Miss Pairlee Davis, of this county, has been appointed by Mrs. Helen B. Wolcott, State Agent, to be agent for the Canning Club work in Lawrence county, and will leave at once for Louisa to enter upon her duties. Miss Davis is a daughter of Mr. Lem Davis and has been teaching in the county schools, but last summer took a course of instruction under Mrs. Eloise Graves in the Canning Club work in this county. She has since qualified herself to handle the work as county agent, which she will at once take up. She is a very intelligent and highly capable young woman, who will undoubtedly score a success.

WHY PRINCE ALBERT WINS

Patented Process is Responsible For its International Popularity.

Smokers so much appreciate the flavor and coolness and aroma of Prince Albert pipe and cigarette tobacco that they often marvel that this one brand could be so different from all others.

The answer to this question is to be found on the reverse side of every Prince Albert package, where you will read: "Process Patented July 30th, 1907." That tells the whole story. Prince Albert is made by a patented process that cuts out the bite and parch, which makes the tobacco so mighty agreeable and satisfying to men of every taste of every civilized nation on the globe.

Smokers should realize that this patented process cost three years' continuous work and study and a fortune in money to perfect. But the result has proven to be worth all that was expended upon it, because it has set free men who believed they never could enjoy a pipe or a makin's cigarette.

Prince Albert makes it possible for every man to smoke a pipe or to roll his own cigarettes. And, no matter how tender the tongue, Prince Albert cannot bite or parch. That is cut out by the patented process, leaving for the smoker only the joys of the fragrant tobacco.

It is a fact that since Prince Albert "arrived," just about six years ago, it has made three men smoke pipes where one smoked a pipe before.

POPULAR MECHANICS

MAGAZINE FOR MARCH.

Men's ceaseless and sometimes marvelous struggle against the elements of nature, as for example his triumph over river, floods, and snow, is a story of never-ending interest, as is strikingly shown by a number of articles in Popular Mechanics Magazine for March. For example: The big Arkansas River is much given to changing its channel, with the result that cities having bridges of the lift type have found their lifts useless and the bridges have become barriers to boat traffic. But now engineers have designed and built a bridge, any span of which can be easily made into a lift span, according to an article in this magazine. Thirty-foot snow drifts in a mountain village are no deterrent to children in that community attending school, for, we are told, an elaborate system of boarded tunnels makes their going and coming perfectly safe, even in the severest storms. Illustrations add proof to the statement. A treacherous tributary of the Los Angeles River has been put in a concrete "strait-jacket" and now submits to the will of man all the year round, according to another article.

REVOLVER IS MOUNTED IN
END OF POCKETKNIFE.

A novelty of recent appearance combines the functions of a revolver and pocketknife in one article. One end of the invention resembles an ordinary jackknife, having the usual hinged blades of assorted sizes. In the other end, however, is mounted a steel block, bored out to receive a .22-caliber cartridge, either blank or ball. Attached to the back of the knife is a suitable trigger arrangement for firing the cartridge. A picture of the device appears in the March Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Harriet Winchell has retired after fifty years as a teacher in Chicago schools.

INFANT MORTALITY

Government Bulletin Discusses Need of "Baby Week."

The census bureau has estimated that about 300,000 infants die annually under the age of one year, and that approximately one-fifth of the total mortality of each year consists of children who have not yet passed their first anniversary. The general infant mortality of the civilized world is approximately 130 per thousand live births. The general infant mortality for the United States is approximately 124. France has balanced its diminished birth rate of infant mortality. The birth rate of American born infants of American parentage is practically on a par with the low birth rate of France, but our infant mortality rate among such infants has not yet approached the favorable figures to be found in that country.

"Sir Arthur Newshorne has stated, 'Infant mortality is the most sensitive index we possess of social welfare and of sanitary administration.' Accepting this for the time being, it is a sad commentary upon this country that we still maintain an unnecessarily high infant mortality rate. The social offense is particularly glaring upon realization that the basic causes of infant mortality are poverty and ignorance. In every investigation of the infantile death rate in large cities or small villages, it has been shown that the burden of infantile death is borne by those lacking in worldly possessions, underfed, underclothed, underpaid, undereducated and underdeveloped by social forces.

"Fundamentally the purpose of a baby week is educational. It seeks to awaken communities to the sound economy of reducing the morbidity and mortality rates among infants and the advantages that accrue to the community by promoting effective measures to protect the health and welfare of mothers and children. A campaign should be inaugurated that will present the local facts of infant mortality in a frank and open manner and indicate not merely what is being done to offset the death rate, but also demonstrate what activities are essential in order to control or lessen the infantile mortality."

Bullet in Brain.

The condition of Charles Kaiser, aged 20, who was brought to the Evansville sanitarium from Seebree, Ky., last week with a bullet in his brain, the result of an accident, showed a slight improvement. Kaiser was cleaning a revolver which fell from his hand to a concrete floor and exploded. The bullet penetrated the brain. His recovery is doubtful.—Evansville Courier.

St. Louis Adopts Segregation.

St. Louis, Mo., March 1.—Unofficial returns from yesterday's election show last night that both of two ordinances proposing segregation of negroes have been carried by a majority of 34,344. The vote was 52,220 for segregation and 17,876 against.

Has Two Wives.

Tony F. Fosko of Central City, violinist and composer of many soulful melodies, sits in the Daviess county jail and cogitates upon the startling fact that he has only just discovered that he has one too many wives. The warrant for Fosko's arrest was sworn out by Mrs. Mary Hunter Fosko, living on Hathaway street, Owensboro. She alleges that Fosko married her in Central City on September 23, 1910, and Fosko says she's right. In 1912 at Metropolis, Ill., Miss Rosa Smith became Mrs. Fosko the second, and she is now in Central City caring for twins born to the second union.

Fosko says his first wife left him and went away with another man and he afterwards heard she was dead and then he married again.

Charles Dana Gibson's daughter, Irene, a recent debutante, is soon to wed George B. Post, Jr., son of the New York architect.

Bride Kills a Man.

Fort Worth, Tex., March 1.—Mrs. Katherine Vance Harrison, 15 years old, bride of Charles Harrison, nephew of Mrs. Charles Culberson, wife of Senator Charles Culberson of Texas, was released with her husband after they had given $2,500 bail each to answer charges of murder filed against them. The police said Mrs. Harrison had confessed that she shot and killed W. R. Warren, a hotel proprietor, and claimed that he had wronged her before her marriage.

Dead of Gas Poisoning.

Piqua, O., March 1.—Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carter, of Port Huron, Mich., were found dead here, having been dead since early morning of gas poisoning. They had spent the night in a room in which natural gas was burning. They were but recently married.
